40 Renewed Mind

I was in Central Indiana those days, and I think "Shopping Service" was just that...an hour of home shopping but I don't think I ever watched it. I would work at WLFJ 1992-94.

I still find it interesting that a 'shopping service' was scheduled at 9am weekdays on a CBS affiliate in 1987, in a mid-sized market. Unless it was some type of local program where items were sold, I have no idea why they would run Home Shopping Club for an hour. Lack of syndicated programming I guess but that still puzzles me.

And Super Password didn't get cleared at all in Central Indiana, not even on an indie.

There was an hour-long shop-at-home syndicated show at the time called ValueTelevision, hosted by Alex Trebek and Meredith MacRae. It aired for a few months in early 1987 and was distributed by Lorimar.

<https://www.nytimes.com/1987/05/11/arts/shop-at-home-program-fails-to-show-and-tell.html>

Alex Trebek hosting a shopping show NOT on QVC or HSC, but for local syndication. I think I've seen it all now.

According to the Indianapolis Star television listings, it was indeed ValueTelevision that aired at 9:00 am on WISH-TV.

What show aired at 5 PM on 59?

Sorry. Ch 59 had Silver Spoons at 5pm. And ch 49 had Mister Rogers.

I still find it interesting that a 'shopping service' was scheduled at 9am weekdays on a CBS affiliate in 1987, in a mid-sized market. And Super Password didn't get cleared at all in Central Indiana, not even on an indie.

I think Super Password did air some in the Spring/Summer when Indiana was on Eastern Standard Time (technically Central Daylight Time). I know WTWO aired it sometimes at 11:00 AM.

I guess it never bothered ABC or NBC that many East Coast stations pre-empted their Noon offerings for news with many ABC stations airing Ryan's Hope at 11:30 AM or not at all, just as NBC's Super Password didn't air in many markets. However, by the end of the decade in 1989, NBC had two feeds of Generations at Noon or 12:30 ET. In 1991, ABC did the same with Loving at Noon or 12:30.

KMTV airing paid programming in prime time made no sense. At 11pm CT, it might have made a little more sense considering how bad CBS's late night programming was at the time

I bet it was a paid religious program like Feed the Children or World Vision.

Regarding paid programming in prime time, many network affiliates would substitute shows in place of network fare. KMOV here in St. Louis was notorious for it during their Viacom years. There were the hour-long national specials from Billy Graham or St. Jude's, as well as half-hour shows from local supermarkets and restaurants disguised as cooking/travel/lifestyle shows.

In the case of Channel 3 in Omaha, dropping a brilliant comedy like Police Squad! in favor of an infomercial may sound like sacrilege, but when you consider it as running a commercial program in place of a summer rerun of a nine-year-old show, it makes a bit more sense. At least in the pocketbook, anyway.

As for Johnny B at 10 pm on Channel 17: "Johnny B... on the Loose" was a very short-lived syndicated comedy show starring Chicago radio host Jonathon Brandmeier. It debuted June 24, 1991, and its cancellation had already been announced by the time of this TV listing.

I still have to say that it's surreal that Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy were once on a UPN station. Currently, Jeopardy is on WZTV and Wheel is on WKRN, but it's still a rarity in the U.S. to have those game shows on separate stations.

And 10:30PM is an incredibly early and likely by then, unique time for a PBS station in a <100 market to sign off. Even my local, KYVE Yakima WA (market #114) had been signing off at midnight for a year or so prior to this listing, they were 11PM for years and years prior.

I would imagine people on the outskirts of the Nashville market either couldn't get Wheel or Jeopardy at all or had to try to pull in an out of market station that had both shows, considering at this time UPN and WB stations usually didn't have full market cable carriage (however, WXMT may have had near marketwide cable carriage as it was the original FOX affiliate for Nashville)

Sailor moon at 5:30 a.m.!

You gotta be kidding me! Sailor Moon airing in Nashville at 5:30 a.m.? Give me a break.

The short lived WFL was on TV this summer night. Just before President Nixon resigned.

Nixon resigned a week before this listing, on August 9, 1974.

I didn't realize KDKA's pre-empting As the World Turns went back this far. It was the #1 soap in the 1960s and 1970s. I'm surprised they would pre-empt it over other CBS shows and kept lower rated soaps Love of Life and The Edge of Night.

Most of Pittsburgh could get ATWT on WSTV and/or WTAJ

I looked it up and didn't realize WSTV (now WTOV) is so close to Pittsburgh.

There once was WJNL-TV, Ch. 19 from Johnstown, but I think that station was only on the air in the evenings.

In an odd aversion, that station moved into Pittsburgh in the 1990s, but still serves Johnstown and Altoona (the Altoona-Johnstown market doesn't have its own CW affiliate)

Now they do, on a digital subchannel of WJAC.

J.R., meanwhile, targets Stephanie (Lesley-Anne Down) as a woman worth taming; and Clayton comes to the aid of an old friend (Eddie Firestone) accused of murder.

20 22 30 49 Great Performances

Bob Fosse: Steam Heat. "Bob often talked about his limitations as a dancer," his former wife Gwen Verdon says. "But if you look at film of Bob dancing-I mean, where are the limitations?" Indeed, they're not evident in this affectionate profile of the dancer-choreographer-director who died in 1987 at age 60. Less a biography than a scrapbook, the hour blends comments from Fosse and associates with clips of his TV and stage work, plus highlights from his movies, including "The Pajama Game" (1957), "Damn Yankees" (1958), "Sweet Charity" (1969), "Cabaret" (1972, he won the directing Oscar) and "All That Jazz" (1979).

40 Breakthrough

At this point in early 1990, WGN as listed here was actually the national superstation version rather the local Chicago version. This is evidenced by some of the shows listed, older stuff such as Dick Van Dyke And Abbott And Costello instead stuff newer to syndication such as The Golden Girls and Hunter House Party was a revival of the Art Linkletter program of the same name, hosted by Steve Doocy. It was short-lived.

Interesting. Steve Doocy was a few years away from Fox and Friends.

Wasn't both 32C WFLD and 59 WXIN both Fox stations by 1990?

Yes both stations were charter Fox affiliates in 1986, with WFLD being a Fox owned and operated station.

Google Translate, huh? Fuller House wasn't even on yet.

Sure, I didn't find the original titles of any films or serials shown in Slovenian language in that newspaper, on the review-based sites (probably were wrong translated in 1990s, ordinary in Central and Eastern Europe). Some of these were the documentary films in German language, for example.

Phoenix looked like an interesting market!

* I Love Lucy airing mid-afternoon on KPHO (CBS)

* Oprah, Wheel, and Jeopardy! airing on KTVK (independent)

* Six stations airing news at 10pm

* KPHO airing an abbreviated 10pm newscast prior to a shortened episode of Seinfeld

* KPNX (NBC) and KNXV (ABC) airing their soaps in an unusual pattern

1) So six including KTVW?

2) This would last until 2001 when it would go a full 35 minutes.

Yes. AFAIK, there are very few (if any) markets where five English language stations air news against one another.

I thought "Fresh Prince of Bel Air" was an NBC show?

(either way, loved it as a teenager and loving watching it again on Netflix now)

WPIX had syndicated rights

Also, Fresh Prince had ended first-run episodes earlier in 1996

Thanks, is it very unusual to have something shown on a competing network so soon after the first run ended?

No, not at all. Actually if I'm calculating correctly shows used to generally go into syndication about the fall before they reach 100 episodes. (Or their fifth full season). I believe Fresh Prince entered syndication in the 1995-1996 season. I know Full House was picked up 1991-1992. And Family Matters followed two years later. Shows are in first run and in syndication simultaneously all the time. It's not necessarily on a competing network either. It's just whichever station wins the syndicated rights. For example, WCCB, which was Fox at the time, happened to win the syndicated rights to The Simpsons, Martin, and King of the Hill. And syndicated programming is not network programming.

Fresh Prince of Bel Air debuted on syndication in Fall 1994.

As did The Simpsons, Beverly Hills 90210 and America's Funniest Home Videos

Anyone has the TV schedules for December 7-8, 1996.

What? No univision or telemundo listings?

Where are the listings for Univision channel 41 and Telemundo channel 47? They're missing from the grid.

So KSL might've been the only Mountain station to air (almost) the entire CBS daytime lineup live, except airing news instead of Capitol at 12:30 and not airing I believe Press Your Luck at 2 Mountain, but who did? That time slot was returned to affiliates in a couple months anyway. I know a good many Mountain stations air TPIR live at 9.

Numerous small markets cleared Press Your Luck (as well as the CBS O&Os airing it at noon or after Price Is Right but obviously not enough to warrant continuing the time period.

And I almost forgot about Canned Film Festival (12 Midnight, ch. 30), a precursor to MST3K and a harkening back to Disasterpiece Theatre in San Diego (on XETV back in 1980).

It is interesting to see how KMOV aired it's own game shows in the morning pre-empting the $25,000 Pyramid and KSDK pre-empted Classic Concentration, Super Password, and Scrabble. KTVI aired the entire ABC Daytime lineup in pattern during this time before they later pre-empted Home and Loving.

$25,000 Pyramid was canceled July 1 that year. Family Feud (Ray Combs) replaced it and KMOV aired it on a delay. It was Card Sharks that they didn't clear, and since CBS no longer owned KMOV, they didn't have to clear it.

Hard to believe WSPA disrespected ET like that. It is now on WYFF at 7.

This was during the WFBC C-40 days. They are now WMYA. WYFF used to have the WFBC calls in the 80s.

Yes... 7:30 (yes, that was the name of the program) was a sorta news, mainly entertainment news program hosted by WSVN's Kelley Mitchell (RIP) and Jessica Aguirre (when she worked there, now at KNTV San Jose). This was the program that later became the current Deco Drive starting in the mid or late 90s.

Wow in 1993 both WWF Superstars and WCW Worldwide was airing at 3-5am why air them at those hours? KASA could've aired both shows in the afternoon instead, Fox didn't have the MLB TV rights until 1996.

The ITV schedule is incomplete.

This Conservative party conference is best remembered for an assassination attempt on Margaret Thatcher just 3 days later; she wasn't hurt but five others were killed.

Interesting to see lots of educational programming on both the BBC and ITV in the mornings. Does any of that still appear on UK TV, and if not when did it stop?

Nice, we got the ITV schedule for when Thomas Premiered for the first time!

5 6 8 Movie

'An Early Frost.' (1985) A TV-movie in the tradition of 'That Certain Summer.' That 1972 film, starring Hal Holbrook and Martin Sheen, was TV's first frank and compassionate treatment of homosexuality. 'An Early Frost' is the first TV-movie to dramatize the plight of a homosexual man stricken with AIDS. And it does so with intelligence and guts. The victim here is a bright, likable young lawyer named Michael Pierson (Aidan Quinn), whose physical ordeal is only part of the problem. Most of the movie focuses on the reactions of Michael's parents, who didn't know he's gay, and on Michael's own psychological trauma, particularly his anguish at being treated like a pariah. Directed by John Erman, an Emmy winner for 1983's 'Who Will Love My Children?' Ben Gazara, Gena Rowlands, Sylvia Sidney.

9 The Brain

9 Unknown Soldier

'Here Rests in Honored Glory an American Soldier Known But to God.'-Inscription on the Tomb of the Unknowns at Arlington National Cemetery. Six World War II U.S. servicemen whose bodies were never found or identified-representing that war's 78,000 American MIAs-are profiled in this documentary, narrated by Jason Robards. Framed by a history of the Tomb of the Unknowns, the hour recounts the lives and deaths of these men through archival footage of the campaigns in which they fought, letters, stills and most movingly, the reminiscences of loved ones, friends and service buddies.

Remembered...Army sergeant Billy Frazier, killed in 1944 during the first Allied fighting in Germany. Marine colonel Frank Goettge, a legendary leatherneck whose 'peace patrol' was massacred on Guadalcanal. Capt. Alfonza Davis, a member of the celebrated all-Black Tuskegee Airmen, lost on a reconnaissance flight to Germany. Air Corps sergeant Wallace Kinder, executed by the Japanese after fighting with guerrilla forces following the fall of Bataan. Army private Taro Tonai, machine-gunned while running messages to the front lines of Italy. Navy chief petty officer John Burden, a 20-year veteran whose destroyer sank.

Nothing from the Radio-Canada channel.

CBUFT was never included in western WA TV Guides just because no one ever watched it. And the UHF 26 transmitter wasn't as strong as the VHF 2, nor were they on cable anywhere.

Nice that the Canadian channels all had Veterans Day programming. Odd to see both "Dynasty" and "Dallas" in reruns already, or were these indie stations airing episodes pre-empted by the network affiliates?

And why on earth was KVOs still a CBS affiliate? Only three CBS shows are on the station, all of them daytime episodes.

Dallas entered syndication in September 1984, Dynasty did the same in September 1985.

13 Joker's Wild (reruns from the '70s?)

Not exactly. Bill Cullen had taken over as host at this point (his last show before retiring) and it would have first-run eps to 1986.

Ah, that's right. Thanks.

I have a Western WA TV Guide from June 1986 (need to post a listing soon.) KCPQ had moved Break the Bank to 8:30AM replacing Bewitched by that time. I guess once they learned of the cancellation it went to an earlier timeslot to burn off. It's interesting to see KCPQ's schedules in the 1980s, with no children's shows and barely any sitcoms.

CBC French wasn't listed in many TV listings, even along the border. The only places I can think of are Detroit (the Detroit papers had CBEFT in its listings, but it never had cable carriage on the American side of the river) or in northern New England (where CBFT and CKSH still have some cable carriage)

2 18 45 NOVA

'Hot Enough for You?' recalls the exceptionally hot, droughty summer of 1988 and considers whether the conditions constituted a 'fluke or a sign of things to come.' Here, it's suggested that the culprit was the greenhouse effect which, according to a Princeton University study, threatens to raise global temperatures 3 to 9 degrees by the year 2050. [Later reports have blamed ocean temperatures in the Pacific.] Also: comments by scientists; how chlorofluorocarbons (from certain aerosols and refrigerants) aggravate the situation.

3 10 Matlock

A distraught man (Mitchell Lawrence) takes Matlock's friends hostage and, while they wait for his return, Michelle, Julie and Tyler (Nancy Stafford, Julie Sommars, Kene Holliday) try to dissuade the gunman with tales of Ben's sly detective work and courtroom heroics (shown via clips from past episodes).

6 9 Who's the Boss?

Samantha (Alyssa Milano) is ready to hit the streets with her new driver's license, but Tony (Tony Danza) steers her wrong when he gives her the keys to a bright yellow 'tank'. Off. Audette: Garrett Morris. Bonnie: Shana Lane-Block.

8 12 Tour of Duty

Anderson (Terence Knox) feels better after a visit to the doctor (Betsy Brantley), who invites him to dinner; Ruiz (Ramon Franco) is shaken by a couple of close calls; Taylor (Miguel A. Nunez, Jr.) picks the wrong place at the wrong time to woo a Red Cross worker.

9PM

2 18 45 American Experience

'Sins of Our Mothers: The Story of Emeline' attempts to separate fact from fiction in a 'haunting story that's been told for more than a century in Fayette, Maine.' It recalls the tragic life of a 19th-century woman who was ostracized by townsfolk after she bore a child at age 14, and decades later, legend says, unknowingly married her own son. While the tale's incestuous twist is unproven, Emeline did bear an illegitimate child and, as a result, lived as a pariah and died in poverty. The story, host David McCullough says, reflects 'the strengths and failures of community.' Narrator: Amanda Plummer.

3 10 In the Heat of the Night

A drifter becomes a lifesaver for Joann (Lois Nettleton), whose cook is away, by Gillespie (Carroll O'Connor) thinks the man may have killed a prostitute, although Tibbs (Howard Rollins) is convinced someone else did it.

6 9 Moonlighting

It's boys against girls as the detectives take sides in a claim of sexual harassment that culminated with the alleged harasser using a gun to harass the alleged harasser. Martha: Joan Pringle. Robin: Jayne Atkinson.

8 12 Movie

'Desperate for Love' concerns an ill-fated romantic triangle linking troubled teenagers in rural Georgia. This fact-based 1989 TV-movie was filmed on location. Christian Slater, Tammy Lauren, Brian Bloom.

Retro: New york city, ny tv schedule from monday january 1, 1990

Here's A Look At What NYC's TV Schedule Was Like On The Very 1st Day Of The 1990s. NOTE: This was also the very 1st day of the new "Syndex" rule, in which one local TV station in NYC, WWOR had programming replacements on it's cable superstation feed, outside of NYC. But here you're actually seeing the local feed's schedule as this was taken from the New York Daily News.

Retro: Chicago, il tv schedule from monday january 1, 1990

Since I just did NYC's TV Schedule From The 1st Day of the 1990s, I thought I now do one for Chicago in which another local TV station in Chicago, WGN (Like WWOR in NYC) had programming replacements on it's cable superstation feed, outside of Chicago. Like before, you're actually seeing the local feed's schedule as this was taken from the Chicago Tribune.

Why did channel 32 in Chicago delay the Roses Parade at 1 a.m. the next morning in order to air an I Love Lucy Marathon?

A nine-and-a-half-hour marathon, by the way.

I never knew of a Fox station to ever air the Rose parade but if they were going to, you'd think they'd air it live.

KTTV used to air their own coverage of the Rose Parade for years, competing against rival KTLA and the network telecasts on CBS and ABC, and would often syndicate their feed to other Metromedia/Fox-owned stations.

Retro: This Week in TV Guide, September 16, 1967 - MN State Edition

Real life intrudes. Neil Hickey looks at whether TV coverage of riots makes things worse - and if you think it's bad in 1967, wait until you see the next year... Also, a look back at a time when the television premiere of an award-winning movie was a big deal, the new season continues to roll out, Sullivan vs. The Palace, the week in sports, and more!

10:30p Movie – "The Last Command"

Here's something that will tilt you towards Sullivan - according to the TV Changes section in the Boston Globe that day, The Doors were added to the show. And The Smothers Brothers substituted Mickey Rooney, Bette Davis and The Who for George Burns and Herman's Hermits.

Boston and Providence TV stations aired the same football games, starting at 2p Eastern.

Yes - The Doors would definitely tip the balance toward Sullivan! Interesting substitution for the Smothers Brothers; I wonder what the rest of the story is, if there is one?

My guess (and it's only a guess): For some reason, the show's producers or CBS simply substituted the episode with The Who, Bette Davis, and Mickey Rooney for the one with George Burns and Herman's Hermits.

At the time, Burns was still trying to establish himself as a "solo act" after the death of his wife Gracie Allen (his greatest fame would come as a solo act in the 1970's and 1980's). I'm pretty sure that Herman's Hermits' last big hit had already occurred by this time.

Also: Wasn't this the "Smothers" show the first time that The Who destroyed their instruments at the end of their performance?? It later became a trademark at the end of their concerts.

As Mitchell H. pointed out in his blog, very seldom were Minnesota Twins' home games broadcast on local TV, despite their being in a tight pennant race.

I believe that in 1967, only four or five home games were likely telecast, probably the home opener, Holidays, and maybe a home game against Baltimore, the defending World Series champs.

I would think the final two games of the season in Boston were televised back to the Twin Cities (but if my memory serves me correct, the Twins were eliminated when they lost on Saturday, Boston clinched at least a tie for the pennant when they beat Minnesota on Sunday, and Detroit lost later that afternoon to California, which gave Boston the pennant).

Close - the Twins were actually eliminated on Sunday, the last day. The Sox wound up beating both the Twins and Tigers by one game (with the White Sox only three games behind), which means that the Twins and Sox entered the final day tied - the loser would be eliminated. As I recall, those games were televised back to the Twin Cities by Channel 11, and I came across a note not long ago that suggested NBC also televised the Sunday game - fairly unprecedented at the time.

Was that the greatest pennant race ever? Now, with the wild-cards and the divisions, we'll never see anything like it again.

The WHDH broadcast of the Sunday game is available as a bonus disc on the "Impossible to Forget" documentary DVD. It's the oldest complete game color tape in existence. It does not have commercials, however.

<http://www.amazon.com/Impossible-Fo...79629244&sr=1-1&keywords=Impossible+to+Forget>

Too bad.

I wanted to see the 1968 Plymouths, hear the Narragansett Beer "Hi, Neighbor" jingle, and the Atlantic gasoline spots with the new red, white and blue "Atlantic" logo.

It's bizarre. No advertising in the stadium at all, only a Jimmy Fund sign in right. No drop-in promo mentions for upcoming programming. There are only 3 commercial drop-ins - Atlantic, Narragansett, and White Owl cigars, and only one of those an inning. Fortunately the baseball makes up for it all.

In regard to the Vikings not airing on WCCO despite being from Minnesota. In those days (and before the 1973 season) ALL home games of a team were blacked out in the home teams market. And since the Vikings were at home that day the game was blacked out in Minneapolis.

About as good a kiddie lineup as ABC ever had:

09:00a Linus the Lionhearted (color)

09:30a Peter Potamus (color)

10:00a Bullwinkle (color)

10:30a Discovery '67 (color)

11:00a Stingray (color)

(Actually, I think Stingray may have been syndicated, but still, what kid could resist that lineup? Discovery was a fun "educational" show, much better than today's bland E/I content.

Sorry to bump up an old topic but after the Red Sox had eliminated the Twins they had to wait as the Tigers and Angels were playing a Doubleheader. Going into that final Sunday Boston and Minnesota were tied so it was a winner take all game for those two teams and the tigers were .5 a game back. Detroit had to sweep the doubleheader against the Angels to force a playoff against Boston for the AL Pennant but when they Tigers lost the second game that gave the Red Sox the Pennant and a trip to the World Series.

Kind of unusual for a CBS O&O in market 2 to not air a local morning newscast!

There were other CBS O&Os that didn't have morning newscasts at the time: WBBM, WCIX (now WFOR) and WCAU. WCAU launched its morning newscast when it switched to NBC (September 11, 1995); WBBM and WFOR premiered it on the same date as KCBS: August 12, 1996. That was the day when CBS This Morning was revamped, allowing affiliates to air (or not to air) the whole or some portions of the 7am hour.

Stich, do you have any TV listings from this day in Houston, Texas?

Wow, that's strange, I could have sworn that KVII/7 carried All My Children when I was up there (1989-1993)....maybe they either didn't want to bother with a 1-day tape delay or thought they'd be banging their heads against the wall trying to carry a soap opposite Young & the Restless, but Dr. Quinn ?!?! Really??

I had to do a double take of the listings, even checking weekend overnights-but no "All My Children" in site on KVII. Of the other ABC affiliates listed in the edition, WFAA and KAMC carried it at 11am, while KMID carried it at 12pm.

where'd you find these listings?

An ABC affiliate not clearing All My Children? I could understand that in 1977, but not 1997.

KVII did add "All My Children" at some point later, I believe on a one-day delay at 11 a.m. I'm pretty sure KVII was the only ABC affiliate in the country not clearing AMC in 1997.

^You're right, KVII did put All My Children at 11:00 AM in Sep. 2002 (when Rosie O'Donnell's talk show got axed). Also, from Sep. 2000 to Aug. 2002, KVII had All My Children in the late-night hours.

not only that, KVII acquired local rights to The Oprah Winfrey Show in 2002 from NBC affiliate KAMR which carried the show from its 1986 debut.

At the Movies was the Rex Reed/Dixie Whatley movie show that ran from 1986 to 1990 after Siskel and Ebert left the original At the Movies to start their own show

Can I see Saturday's schedule for October 19, 1985

Under the rules of the time, Florida couldn't appear on live television due to NCAA sanctions

I'll take it as read that the 1 PM CBS game was Atlanta at New Orleans.

so..WXIA showed a movie instead of the Raiders-Browns game?(that was NBC's main early game, which was on WYFF Greenville)

Even though they could legally show a 1pm game as Atlanta was on the road

The Falcons were at home. So they couldn't Pro Football Reference confirms this.

<https://www.pro-football-reference.com/boxscores/198510200atl.htm>

How about a Saturday schedule?

According to most every MST3K source, the actual premiere movie featured on MST3K was, "Invaders from the Deep," from 1981 NOT "Thunderbirds in Space". Do you think the newspaper made a typo?

Wasn't Ch. 29 a Fox station by late 1988?

By 1988, KMSP was one of several Fox affiliates nationwide that were disappointed with the network's weak programming offerings, particularly on Saturday nights, which were bogging down KMSP's otherwise successful independent lineup. That January, channel 9 dropped Fox's Saturday night lineup; [39] the move did not sit well with Fox, and in July 1988 the network announced that it would not renew its affiliations with KMSP and Chris-Craft sister station KPTV in Portland, Oregon.[40] Fox then signed an agreement with KITN (channel 29, now WFTC) to become its new Twin Cities affiliate, and KMSP reverted to being an independent station full-time

I believe so. Sorry, but the papers did not list KITN as a FOX station (though it aired FOX programming). In contrast, the Boston Globe, DID list WFXT as a FOX station at the time. I guess that was a mistake on my part for being largely ignorant of the label.

29- KITN (FOX)

Don't worry it wasn't really clear Fox was a network in 1988 anyway. I remember Hal Erickson's "Syndicated Television" book from 1989 includes early Fox shows, and considering how few days it was actually on it was closer to Operation Prime Time than the "Big Three".

BTW, did the listings for the "All American Parade" include the host cities? And when did CBS just switch to airing the NYC parade on Thanksgiving?

To avoid confusion (and some people might be, since these are coming from a newspaper in Moncton, NB), WAGM's listings are given in Atlantic time; subtract one hour for everything from Jackie Gleason through "Gunsmoke" to get the CBS schedule on Eastern time:

7:30 Jackie Gleason

8:30 Trials Of O'Brien

9:30 The Loner

10 PM Gunsmoke

I'm saying this because I don't know how many people, unless they live near the Canadian border, realize that the Maritimes are an hour ahead (Newfoundland 90 minutes ahead) of Eastern time.

Thanks for the assist...had a brain cramp when I typed this and forgot to include the disclaimer :D

Was the Wrestling All Star Wrestling from Toronto or Grand Prix Wrestling from Montreal? ???

Wrestling In 1965. So local

NY Times discontinues TV listings after 81 years

I was surprised that they were still included in the NYC print editions...

<https://www.cnn.com/2020/08/30/media/new-york-times-tv-listings/index.html>

At one time, the local stations would also buy advertising on that page. That was sort of the idea: A way to attract advertising from TV stations. Perhaps they haven't bought ads in a while. It's been a long time since I actually read a print edition.

In the old days, unless you bought a subscription to TV Guide (or ordered the local Sunday paper) you had only a few channels to choose from. As cable systems came along they either published or broadcast their schedules. Now there are hundreds of stations, most with really nothing to show so the five programs that most people watch are easy to remember (or the guides are free on the internet and can cover several days at a time as well as be customized).

I can remember when radio guides were published too. TV guides are following them out the door.

The Sunday Herald News here in Fall River, MA just has TV listings for Sunday's on Sundays and I haven't seen a TV - week like guide in a while. They even have listings from WPIX 11 from New York, NY listed as well.

Listings are still printed daily in the Ellensburg Daily Record. They cover the evening and the next day up to 6pm I believe. Only inaccuracy is that KIRO-7 is still listed, Spectrum no longer has KIRO on cable. KOMO and KING are still on part-time syndex'ed feeds.

The Snoqualmie Pass area might be able to get an OTA signal from KIRO (and the other Seattle sticks). Does the Daily Record list KCPQ, which has a translator in Ellensburg?

Back on topic, my local newspaper (Manistee News-Advocate) eliminated its TV Week a few years ago. Up until the end, the cable conversion guide was laughably out of date and had the infamous "Arcadia getting Detroit and Flint stations" lineup. Not sure about whether or not the other local paper (the Ludington Daily News) still has a TV Week, but that one had way more broadcast channels, especially in the mid to late 1990s:

Manistee had five channels: 7 WPBN (NBC), 9 WWTU (CBS), 21 WCMW (PBS), 29 WGTU (ABC), and 33 WGKI (FOX) (side note: for years, WCMW was listed as WZZM in the program grids, but WCMW's programming and channel number were correct)

Ludington had the five listed under Manistee, but also had: 2 WBAY (ABC), 4 WTMJ (NBC), 5 WFRV (CBS), 6 WITI (FOX), 10 WMVS (PBS), 11 WLUK (FOX), 13 WZZM (ABC), and 35 WGVU (PBS) talk about old and outdated and unless you have the space, a waste of space

KCPQ's translator went off several years ago. They have never been in Daily Record listings.

KIRO is on cable at Snoqualmie Pass, but no longer on cable in either Ellensburg or Cle Elum. Cle Elum only gets KING 5, rest are Yakima. Snoqualmie Pass didn't get cable until sometime in the '80s, and apparently the signals were abysmal.

Not really shocking at this point though given the current situation on how TV is increasingly including shows from streaming outlets though.

Why did KDKA run Darkwing Duck, Goof Troop and Bonkers instead of CBS This Morning? This was right before it became an O&O so it probably didn't last long. But wow!

KOLR-10 was a little preemption happy. I did not live in the market, but my fuzzy memory thought that trend was at least a year or two away at this point. These listings don't reflect it, but I'm pretty sure KOLR was running "The CBS Morning News" live from the East Coast feed from 6:00 to 8:00 a.m. It would be interesting to know what syndicated show KOLR aired at 8:00 a.m. I think it's interesting that KOLR passed on the 9:00 a.m. block of CBS shows, but went ahead and cleared "Body Language" at 3:00. The 3:00 p.m. slot was prime preemption fodder for many CBS affiliates back in the day.

New independent KSPR had two hours of network shows during the day, thanks to KY3 and KOLR-10. I seem to remember that KSPR also cleared "The NBC Late Night Movie" on Sunday nights at 10:30, which KY3 took a pass on. KOLR-10 was obviously preempting "The CBS Late Movie" at this point, but I'm not sure if KSPR ever picked it up (I want to say the answer is "no"). If KSPR did carry "The CBS Late Movie," it would have been preempted by the baseball game on this particular night.

Does anyone know if KY3 ever carried "Search for Tomorrow" during its NBC run, or did the station preempt it from the get-go?

The 80s were an unfortunate time

There was another TV guide listing that I found on Newspapers.com that showed what was airing on the Springfield, MO TV stations before 9:00AM, but whoever was copying the page that the listing was on had messed up & the guide was not readable.

Re: Retro: Raleigh/Durham/Fayetteville Weekdays, July 17-21, 1995

I wonder if the PD at WKFT around this time was a closet Democrat... just look at the shows that Rush's old TV show served as a lead-in to... :D

I never understood the day-behind scheduling of "Bold And The Beautiful" at 1 on WRAL, followed by "Roseanne" at 1:30, then "As The World Turns" at 2. I do remember the day "B&B" started airing in pattern, Ch. 5 aired Friday's episode at 1 and Monday's at 1:30, and they were back on schedule.

WRAL still airs "Young And The Restless" on a same-day delay at 4.

Having lived two long stretches in the Triangle (1957-65 and 1990-present), I can tell you that no matter how many stations there are, as far as the audience is concerned there are only two: WRAL and WTVD.

Can you post the PBS schedule, please?

I know this is a longshot but does anyone remember the "Radiovision" show that aired on Channel 28 WRDC around the 1993-1995 timeframe late on Saturday nights (usually 1am when 28 was still an NBC affiliate after SNL then 11:30 when 28 became UPN)? I am curious if it was a locally produced music videos show or some national syndication pickup.

I had forgotten about WRAL airing Bold and the Beautiful at 1. Guess they originally wanted the midday news to lead into it.

Thanks for posting this! But no KTVD?

KREX et al were mostly CBS, but did clear NBC's Wings at 6pm MT, which was parallel with NBC affiliates in the Eastern and Central time zones (8pm ET/7pm CT) but an hour ahead of KCNC and KOAA, which had cable carriage in western Colorado

We had these Denver stations on satellite back then. I remember how KMGH aired the CBS daytime lineup out of pattern and how KCNC aired nothing but news and local programs outside of NBC networking programming. I liked having these stations because primetime shows were an hour later, so if we missed something we had another chance to see it...in the days before DVR.

No schedule for KDVR 31?? There were afterall (And IIRC) the local FOX affiliate

Sorry, the 1993 Southern Colorado edition did not include KDVR nor KTVD at all. However Colorado Springs' Fox station is listed under KXRM.

And obviously KBDI 12 was not covered either (They had a translator on 58 at the time)

Plus, while KDVR was a Fox O&O & aired the entire Fox schedule pretty much in pattern, they had a different schedule when it came to syndie shows

Also (Since I LIVED in Denver at the time & still do BTW :D), I distinctly remember KMGH airing TPIR at 9:00 AM with a syndie game show at 10:00, B&B at 10:30 (One dayu delay) & Y&R at 11:00 so what you have can't be accurate. This held true until shortly before the switch to ABC when they began to air Loving at 10:00 AM & b&B (Definately) at 10:30

This schedule is correct because we had KMGH on satellite and I remember the schedule. I do remember Loving being added and airing with B&B, but I don't recall if Price is Right then moved to 9:00 or they dropped it, because in 1994, they aired Regis & Kathie Lee at 9:00. Here's a link to the schedule in November 1994. <https://www.radiodiscussions.com/sh...-November-11-1994&highlight=Northern+Colorado>

The affiliation switch didn't take place until September 10, 1995.

You're memory might be a little faulty my friend although KMGH did air Y&R at 11 in the late 80's until like '90 or '91 or so. Originally KMGH did air B&B at 12:30 but by '89 it was pre-empted for a couple years(I can't remember why). I think TPIR aired at 9AM on KMGH until the mid-80s or so but then moved to 10 and later 10:30. The addition of Loving didn't happen until the summer of '95 as even my April 1995 listings from the Sterling Journal Advocate show still display the same KMGH schedule (plus or minus a couple syndicated shows).

If I recall, KMGH dropped Price is Right and aired Loving at 10:30 (since KUSA didn't have it) and their news expanded to an hour from 11-12. In September when the affiliation switch occurred, the CBS soaps were replaced by the ABC soaps--AMC at 12, GH at 1, and OLTL at 2. I can't remember if they aired Mike & Maty or if it was aired late at night. I was thinking they had Regis & Kathie Lee at 9, but can't recall what they replaced Bold and the Beautiful with at 10. I remember KCNC aired the CBS daytime lineup with the standard Central/Pacific schedule with Price is Right at 10, Y&R at 11, Bold at 12:30 after the switch.

That's a good question! Interestingly enough the 1998 schedules I have KMGH aired Port Charles at 10:30(after Pictionary revival lol) an hour newscast at 11, followed by AMC, GH, and OLTL. The View aired overnight, although in the case of KRDO at 2PM after the soaps!. KUSA kept the KCNC tradition of airing Days of our Lives at 3PM for several years after the switch.

Not sure why JeeperOne questioned actual print material I have have lmao.

I was able to get a Denver Edition TV Guide from 1985 and I added the listings for it. Back then KMGH did air Price is Right at 9 and Y&R at 11.

9 Live from Lincoln Center

Soprano Elly Ameling and pianist Horacio Gutierrez join conductor Gerard Schwarz and the Mostly Mozart Festival Orchestra in a concert telecast from New York City's Avery Fisher Hall. This concert 'reunites' composers Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-91) and the prolific if lesser known Antonio Salieri (1750-1825), Austrian contemporaries whose bitter rivalry was dramatized in the Oscar-winning 1984 film 'Amadeus.' In the Salieri works on this program, Elly Ameling sings 'Non temer' from the opera 'La fiera de Venezia' (one of 50 operas Salieri composed); and the Mostly Mozart Festival Orchestra performs the overture to 'Prima la musica e poi le parole' and the Concerto in C Major for Flute and Oboe. The orchestra's Mozart selections: the Piano Concerto No. 24 in C Minor (featuring Horacio Gutierrez); the concert aria 'Voi avete un cor fedele' (featuring Ameling); the overture to 'Der Schauspieldirektor'; the Symphony No. 35 in D Major ('Haffner') and the recently discovered Symphony in A Minor, reputedly the first symphony Mozart composed.

10 13 49 Fall Guy

A struggling singer (Kuttee) has evidence implicating an extortionist in the murder of a music producer. LaToya Jackson, the Temptations and the Four Tops have cameos.

41 Lifestyles of the Rich & Famous

Featured: Joan Collins, Liza Minnelli and Ann-Margret vacationing in the British West Indies; Roger Moore and Tanya Roberts on the set of the James Bond film 'A View to a Kill.'

7:30

6 7 12 13t E/R

An old Army buddy tries to repay Sheinfeld (Elliott Gould) for saving his life; and an irate couple (Drew Snyder, K Callan) claim the hospital is violating their civil rights by operating on their son.

8PM

2 3 8m 11 27 Facts of Life

The death of a famous jazz singer (Bill Henderson) brings back fond memories to Tootie and Natalie (Kim Fields, Mindy Cohn), who got to know him at a resort hotel where he worked as a waiter.

4 Movie

'The Sons of Katie Elder.' (1965) Four brothers are victimized by the man who killed their father and stole the family ranch. John Wayne, Dean Martin.

6 7 12 13t Movie

'Coming Out of the Ice' recounts the story of an American (John Savage) who got caught up in Stalin's purges and was sentenced to 10 years of labor in a Siberian gulag. A factual 1982 TV-movie, filmed in Finland. Willie Nelson.

8 Live from Lincoln Center

According to Wikipedia, KLBY-TV operated as a standalone independent station from July 4, 1984 to December 26, 1985, when it went silent. KLBY-TV returned to the air on February 11, 1987, as a satellite of KAKE-TV. The station was originally planned to be a standalone ABC affiliate, but couldn't get the affiliation until they were bought by KAKE-TV.

Before KLBY became a KAKE satellite, KBSH and KBSL (then KAYS and KLOE) were listed as airing some ABC programming according to Television Factbook (and therefore not a straight simulcast of KTVH/KWCH; oddly, KAYS' owners bought then-KTVH in 1983). However, most cable customers did get the full ABC lineup via at least one of:

KAKE Wichita (either via microwave from Wichita or via KUPK Garden City)

KWNB Hayes Center (a satellite of KHGI Kearney)

KUSA Denver

KRDO Colorado Springs

KMBC Kansas City

Yes, KAYS was secondary ABC in the '60s. It actually started as an ABC station in 1958, which I'm surprised about because ABC was the weakest network in '58 and CBS wasn't in rural Kansas until 1962. You'd think a network that aired VERY popular western & family fare like Gunsmoke, Lassie and Ed Sullivan would have a presence locally...

If KLBY did go on as a standalone ABC without the help of KAKE, it would have been the smallest ABC affiliate in the U.S. and I think the smallest network affiliate anywhere in America besides KXGN.

KHOU pre-empting Love of Life at 10:30 AM is the first pre-emption I've seen of the show prior to CBS's move of the show to 4:00/3:00 PM which would take place three weeks from this schedule on April 23, 1979. Most station schedules I've seen had CBS stations carrying the show at 11:30/10:30 AM following Price is Right up until CBS's schedule change. I think CBS wanted the show to fail considering it gave One Day at a Time reruns preference at 3:30/2:30 PM following Guiding Light where Love of Life could have aired without subject to pre-emption by many stations in the later timeslot.

KHOU flipped the CBS daytime reruns of "M*A*S*H" and "All in the Family." I'm guessing KHOU didn't feel it was appropriate to air AITF right after "Captain Kangaroo."

Here is an ad from the September 28, 1970 edition of the Kansas City Times, advertising the launch of KBMA-TV (Now KSHB-TV.).

Tomorrow is Funday!

That's when your set comes alive with more colorful, community-minded broadcasting from new kbma-television. From tomorrow on, watch 41 for fun.

For Kansas City, kbma-television signals the coming of custom-tailored entertainment. Because Channel 41 will be this area's only locally-owned and locally-oriented station, you'll see programs selected exclusively for the Kansas City audience. You'll also see a television station taking a firm editorial position on issues of civic importance.

As an example of Channel 41's hometown viewpoint, "Those Heavy Flicks" on Sunday evenings will be movies chosen by surveys among Missouri and Kansas college students.

"41 Treehouse Lane," predicted to become Kansas City's most-watched cartoon theatre, will be shown every weekday afternoon. It's a Channel 41 confection that's going to make for fast trips home from school.

You won't need to blindfold the youngsters after dinner, either. Evening programs will be characterized by minimum violence and maximum entertainment.

News will be on the hour with regional news at 5:30 and 6:30. Premiering later this fall, Channel 41 will deeply probe the events and issues which are of greatest importance to Kansas Citians.

Through the advanced technical facilities of Channel 41's mobile studio, you'll have on-the-scene news, public-opinion interviews throughout the city and coverage of major local sports events.

You'll see great movies every night in prime time. And these will be unedited, so you'll see the full movie on Channel 41.

Beginning at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow, turn on to 41. Watch the brighter, livelier entertainment on new kbma-television.

8| 11 Fresh Prince of Bel-Air

As the show was still on NBC at the time, was WAGM's episode a new episode from NBC, or a syndicated repeat?

In Channel 8's case, considering it's being followed by "Blossom" (that show and "Fresh Prince" were paired on Monday nights for awhile), I would say it's a time-shifted NBC showing.

By the way... did anyone catch this?

One of the "56's" must be "51" - though, I wouldn't blame one of them for airing "Love Connection" over "Perfect Strangers," personally...

Another catch - not an error, but just interesting:

Could have been worse- WWII might have aired it, and given some of their programming decisions over the years, it would have been no surprise. WWII- putting the K in Quality since 1965 :D

Then again, just about every ABC affiliate aired the series when it was on the network.

But of course, in Tampa Bay, WFTS carried "Perfect Strangers" in syndication, and continued doing so after joining ABC.

True enough...living in an area where WVII was beamed into via cable (up til 1988/89 when the local cableco spiked WVII and WLBZ in favor of their Motown counterparts off the bird), I can tell you that the station's El Cheapo rep is well-earned :D Don't forget...this is a station that pre-records its late news at 7pm ;)

The 7pm hour was used for non-CBS items. If they were still cherry picking from NBC at that point, wouldn't it have been far wiser to air "Today" instead of the "CBS Morning News"? Yeah, I understand CBS was their primary, but one was far more popular than the other.

At one point, WAGM carried Johnny Carson and Saturday Night Live, but discarded them both for CBS's late-night programming long before David Letterman moved to CBS.

I didn't realize KDKA aired As the World Turns at 9:00 AM at one time before dropping it later. I wonder why they didn't air Pittsburgh 2Day in the morning at 9:00 and air ATWT in it's regular timeslot, but for some reason they rarely did. It is interesting to see General Hospital airing 9:30-10:30 AM on WTAE before Edge of Night.

As of 2009, WFXT has Reappeared Entertainment Tonight because WBZ brought Wheel Of Fortune from WSBK.

I wonder what that half-hour of wrestling was on Channel 56 at midnight. Neither WWF nor WCW was producing any 30-minute shows, AFAIK.

Mighty Mouse and Alvin (ch. 25, 7 AM) brings back memories of a Soaky bubble bath commercial where those two characters starred in it. Alvin is taking a Soaky bath singing the jingle when Mighty Mouse hears him and says "Uh oh...sounds like someone's in trouble!"

I remember visiting Nashville during this time period and always thought the way WTVF aired the CBS daytime lineup was unique with As the World Turns shown later at 3:00PM (likely using the Pacific feed of the show). I also remember thinking it how odd it was for All My Children to air at 11:30 (a day behind) on WKRN so they could air a newscast at 12:30 PM.

Did WKRN pre-empt NYPD: Blue?

I believe so

Does anyone know at one point WTVF started carrying Letterman at 10:35?

What kid was up at midnight to watch Family Matters?

Please help me find what these stations were showing between 1AM-6PM. Thank you.

I also would like the listings for what was airing on KYFC-TV Ch. 50 Kansas City, MO on this date.

I'm surprised that FOX and NBC would flip like that in a market like Kansas City. NBC still had the AFC rights for NFL Football in 1994, so that means most Kansas City Chiefs games were on NBC. Switching to Fox means you lose the Chiefs games but get the NFC, was that really a big difference in ratings? I don't think Fox had an advantage in prime time ratings, NBC was about to start a 5 year stretch of Seinfeld and ER alternating being the top-rated show of the year.

WDAF was sold to New World Communications, who had 20% equity in FOX and per the agreement most stations owned at the time (or was in the process of being bought) switched to FOX once the existing contract was up. Basically New World wanted FOX on a VHF station (with a couple exceptions) https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/1994–1996_United_States_broadcast_TV_realignment

I knew about the Fox-New World merger, & that other TV stations were also involved. I also knew that WDAF-TV was the only station involved in the merger that was an NBC affiliate that actually switched to Fox (Former sister stations WVTM-TV Ch. 13 in Birmingham, AL & KNSD-TV Ch. 39 were sold to NBC, with WVTM-TV later being sold to Media General & later to Hearst, ironically making it a sister station to WDAF-TV's rival KMBC-TV Ch. 9), as well that the Kansas City Chiefs are an AFC team. One thing that I remember was that WDAF-TV did air some Chiefs preseason games locally in the late 90's. They also continue to air the occasional Chiefs games that Fox carries.

KSHB didn't seem to get any boost from the Chiefs or Seinfeld or ER for news ratings, the bigger winners from this were KMBC and KSMO

There was also KCTV.

The network switch happened 25 years ago today.

Wheel of Fortune is now on WDAF in Kansas City, but WIBW still carries it in Topeka to this day.

Going a little bit off-topic, but the first TV station in the Kansas City, MO-KS area to air the nighttime version of Wheel of Fortune was ABC affiliate KMBC-TV Ch. 9. KMBC-TV aired the show from 1983 to 1988. After that the show was aired on CBS affiliate KCTV-TV Ch. 5 from 1988 to 2003. It then moved to NBC affiliate KSHB-TV Ch. 41 in 2003 & they aired it until 2012 at which time the show moved to Fox affiliate WDAF-TV Ch. 4.

1984 promo for Wheel of Fortune on KMBC-TV Ch. 9.

<https://youtu.be/gcUbZwZ0ejM?t=47>

They mentioned the network switch at the end of their 9am newscast today.

Wheel of Fortune is now on WDAF in Kansas City, but WIBW still carries it in Topeka to this day.

WDAF now also shows Jeopardy! back-to-back from 2PM-3PM.

Here are some additional listings from the Kansas City Star, including what KYFC-TV was showing on this day, along with some corrections. The Kansas City Star only included primetime listings for the Topeka, KS TV stations in its Sunday Star TV listings.

Debut: Senior legal correspondent Cynthia McFadden narrates this in-depth, five-part examination of the criminal justice system. Over the course of 18 months, ABC camera crews followed a series of homicide cases in the Superior Court of Maricopa County, Arizona. Each episode looks at a single case, including pretrial preparations by the defense and the prosecution, jury selection, cross-examinations and the jury's deliberations behind closed doors. In the opener, a man accused of murdering a friend claims that he acted in self-defense. If convicted of second-degree murder, the defendant could receive a sentence of 22 years in prison.

Please help me find what these stations were showing between 5AM-9AM. Thank you.

I also would like the listings for what was airing on KYFC-TV Ch. 50 Kansas City, MO on this date.

I found this clip on YouTube sometime back of the tail end of the 49ers-Chiefs game that was recorded off of KSHB-TV on this day.

By this time, in preparation for the switch, Ch. 41 was calling itself KSHB 41.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qJnJ6gZNvHk>

Here are some additional listings from the Kansas City Star, including what KYFC-TV was showing on this day, along with some corrections. The Kansas City Star only included primetime listings for the Topeka, KS TV stations in its Sunday Star TV listings.

10 13 ABC News Closeup

Special: 'Lights, Cameras, Politics'. A lively look at politics as a 'multimillion-dollar...television show.' Using archival footage, the program shows how TV news came into its own at the 1952 conventions; how in the years since it has changed 'what we knew and when we knew it'-and altered the rules of politics, according to writer-reporter Richard Reeves. As the hour shows, one essential rule for candidates in the recent Presidential primaries was: attract media attention. 'In a sense,' says California governor Jerry Brown, 'if [candidates aren't] on television, they are political nonbeings.' 'President Carter,' notes Reeves, 'doesn't have to chase cameras,' but would-be Chief Executives must-by creating "media events". Which candidates get covered-and why-are among the subjects candidly discussed by network-news executives and anchormen Walter Cronkite and Frank Reynolds. The program also examines the contest among network-news departments for "prestige, profits [and] ratings"; the impact of political commercials (from the 1952 "Man from Abilene" pitch for Dwight Eisenhower to 1980 spots for President Carter and Sen. Edward Kennedy); and the implications for politics of future breakthroughs in video technology.

Retro: Comedy Channel Premiere, November 1989

Comedy Channel Launch Schedule:

Here is the launch schedule for the HBO-owned Comedy Channel (predecessor to Comedy Central) when it premiered in November of 1989.

It was much more family friendly when it premiered and largely consisted of comedy clips from movies and television (similar to MTV) only interspersed with comedy riffing shows and talk shows hosted by comedians. This format would last for less than two years until it merged with the (ironically enough) MTV Networks-owned HA! (focused largely on sitcom reruns) in 1991 to form CTV: The Comedy Network (renamed Comedy Central after two months).

Only five percent of all television watching households had cable systems that carried the Comedy Channel in its launch. Manhattan was not one of the markets that carried it. These listings were from The Times from Shreveport, Louisiana, Thursday, November 16, 1989, page 6D.

Monday-Friday

6:00 AM- Comedy Clips

10:00 AM- Tommy Sledge P.I. and Movie

2:00 PM- Comedy Clips

5:00 PM- Rachel Sweet

8:00 PM- Higgins Boys and Gruber

11:00 PM- Allan Harvey

2:00 AM- Tommy Sledge P.I. and Movie (Mon-Thu)

2:00 AM- Rich Hall (Fri)

4:00 AM- Comedy Clips (Fri)

Saturday

6:00 AM- Comedy Clips

2:00 PM- Movie

5:00 PM- Rachel Sweet

8:00 PM- Comedy Clips

11:00 PM- Allan Harvey

2:00 AM- Tommy Sledge PI

Tommy Sledge, now that's a name I never expected to see again! He was a standup comedian whose shtick was having the persona of a hard-boiled 40s style detective.

Was KGGM's daytime lineup from CBS in pattern? That's all jumbled up from the way it would normally look.

This was the "normal" daytime for CBS per wiki (times Eastern).

10am Designing Women

10:30 Family Feud

11:00 Price is Right

noon local/syndicated

12:30 Y&R

1:30 B&B

2:00 As the World Turns

3:00 Guiding Light

so with them following the timeslots in pattern (with syndicated at 8 & 9) it is a little wonky there is a thread here after searching that in 2006 they still had it goofy

KRQE-13 Albuquerque

10AM: ATWT

11AM: TPIR

12:30PM: B&B

1PM: Y&R

2PM: GL

when the "normal" for MT would be

10 TPIR

11 Y&R

12:30 B&B

1:00 ATWT

2:00 GL

KGW Portland was doing the 5AM 'Today' at one point, around the late '80s. I'm assuming it's the 8a ET hour live.

Was KGGM's daytime lineup from CBS in pattern? That's all jumbled up from the way it would normally look.

It looks even more jumbled considering both KOB and KOAT ran most of their daytime network programming parallel to Eastern Time. Also, Wheel (KOB) and Jeopardy! (KGGM) on different stations

I'm sure i watched American Gladiators instead of Saturday Night Live then. That was something my mom did too, besides, SNL was not age appropriate for me.

I miss bowling on Saturday afternoons.

ABC's and WLOS's lineup was awesome. Slimer! & the Real Ghostbusters, Bugs Bunny, bowling, Wide World and American Gladiators.

Question: Largest TV Listings

I was wondering what exactly the largest channel listings would be (in terms of overall channels). The most channels I've come across in a guide were the USSB/DirecTV TV Guide and the tv listings for the Rapid City Journal in South Dakota (the latter including listings for two community cable services and the entirety of DirecTV and Dish!). I guess the "Ultimate Satellite" edition of TV Guide would count too as well as any C-band listings. Any suggestions?

In September 1992, the Detroit Free Press included almost every station that served Michigan in their statewide TV Guide:

<http://tvlistingsarchive.blogspot.com/2018/09/michigan-wed-sept-13-1992.html>

I remember seeing that when I was in Michigan for a family reunion back in 1980 -- kept a copy for years, but somewhere along the line it seems to have disappeared. And not just Michigan, but also Toledo, OH, and (I vaguely recall) maybe South Bend, IN.

The South Georgia TV Guide had a multitude of over-the-air channels, and so did the Montana edition. And yes, aforementioned Satellite TV Week C-Band listings were jam-packed with channels, especially when the Denver and PT24 East/West stations went on.

The Des Moines Register's state edition, back in the days when it had one, used to list pretty much everything in Iowa and some neighboring stations as well. I believe the Minneapolis Star Tribune did the same. Those were some pretty hefty listings.

Somewhere in my attic, I have some copies of a regional cable guide that used to serve all of upstate NY and into adjoining parts of VT back in the very early 1980s. It cost a quarter or 35 cents at the drugstore, and used every version of a channel-number bullet it could find to try to provide channel listings for as many systems across upstate NY as it could. So not only did it list every station from Buffalo to Burlington - each one appeared with several different channel-number bullets if it was carried on multiple systems.

It was so ungainly as to be nearly useless, and it disappeared after a few years.

That would likely be Family Happiness magazine, which was carried at some gas stations and drug stores in the '70s and '80s. I have a 1984 issue for Eastern Washington with a multitude of channels, even KVOS Bellingham which I found very surprising.

No, this was something published in NY state. I'll have to go digging to see if I can find them.

I put in an order on ebay for a bunch of satellite TV guides. I'd do the same for Satellite TV Week but all the copies on ebay are too expensive (including a copy owned by OJ Simpson of all people!). I wonder what the biggest cable selection on a newspaper TV guide would look like. I've found quite a few massive ones myself.

For small town newspapers, the Ludington Daily News included the following in the mid-1990s:

Green Bay: WBAY 2 (ABC), WFRV 5 (CBS), WLUK 11 (NBC -> FOX)

Milwaukee: WTMJ 4 (NBC), WITI 6 (CBS -> FOX), WMVS 10 (PBS)

Traverse City-Cadillac: WPBN 7 (NBC), WWTW 9 (CBS), WCMW 21 (PBS), WGTU 29 (ABC), WGKI 33 (FOX)

Grand Rapids: WZZM 13 (ABC), WGVU 35 (PBS)

For comparison, the Manistee News-Advocate 25 miles north included only Traverse City-Cadillac channels at the same time

From what I've seen in old Kansas City Star TV guide listings from the late 70's on Newspapers.com, They, at the time, listed local TV stations in the Kansas City, MO area (WDAF-TV, Ch. 4, KCMO-TV, Ch. 5, KMBC-TV, Ch. 9, KCPT-TV, Ch. 19, KBMA-TV, Ch. 41 & KYFC-TV, Ch. 50.), as well as regional TV stations in St. Joseph, MO (KQTV-TV, Ch. 2.), Kirksville, MO (KTVO-TV, Ch. 3.), Columbia, MO (KOMU-TV, Ch. 8 & KCBJ-TV, Ch. 17.), Jefferson City, MO (KRCG-TV, Ch. 13.), Sedalia/Warrensburg, MO (KMOS-TV, Ch. 6.), Springfield, MO (KYTV-TV, Ch. 3, KOLR-TV, Ch. 10, KOZK-TV, Ch. 21 & KMTC-TV, Ch. 27.), Joplin, MO (KODE-TV, Ch. 12 & KTVJ-TV, Ch. 16.), Pittsburg, KS (KOAM-TV, Ch. 7.), Wichita, KS (KARD-TV, Ch. 3, KPTS-TV, Ch. 8, KAKE-TV, Ch. 10 & KTVH-TV, Ch. 12.) & Topeka, KS (KTWU-TV, Ch. 11, WIBW-TV, Ch. 13 & KTSB-TV, Ch. 27.). Also mentioned was KRCG-TV's low power translator (K110J, Ch. 11.) in Sedalia, MO & I think KOMU-TV's low power translator (K07SD, Ch. 7.) in Rolla, MO. In all, not counting the translators, there were 26 TV stations listed in whole or in part. Most of these TV stations were removed in the early 1980's.

That KMVT lineup is completely bonkers. Instead of airing the soaps and Price in order, they throw in Richard Dawson's ill-fated Feud revival at 10AM, Susan Powter at 11AM, and tape-delayed several hours Regis & Kathie Lee at noon. Then to top it all off, Letterman gets delayed 1/2 hour for Cheers. Was Ted Danson & company more popular in Twin Falls than Letterman?

I see The Other Side did not get cleared in Pocatello, as KIFI filled in possible timeslots with syndicated talk shows and Headline News. Nor did Friday Night.

Meanwhile at KBCI, were they the largest network station by market to air cartoons at that point, based off the Disney Afternoon stuff? Also, strange to see them sign on right into This Morning at 6am with no CBS Morning News, and especially the Feud revival that aired at 8am. Everything else followed Central time EXCEPT B&B which did not get cleared at all! Sister station KVAL Eugene didn't clear it either...

80s and 90s daytime schedules fascinate me, especially CBS, especially Mountain Time affiliates. Based on what I've seen listed on here, it wasn't unusual for MT stations to pick up the live feed of Price at 9am MT and many still do. KMVT did the same with B&B and GL but that's crazy about the rest. You'd think they'd aired Y&R at 10 or 10:30 and ATWT at noon.

WBTV used to delay the old CBS CrimeTime lineup for Cheers but no biggie, but most CBS stations aired Letterman in pattern including WBTV, it bumped Cheers to 12:35 when Letterman premiered.

More interesting notes:

- KBCI foregoing a 6pm newscast to air Jeopardy!
- Speaking of Jeopardy!, its sister show Wheel of Fortune was on KIVI in Boise at 6:30pm
- KSL, which had significant cable carriage in southern Idaho, also pre-empted B&B
- Most of southern Idaho couldn't get Diagnosis: Murder as both KBCI and KIDK aired a Billy Graham crusade (KMVT did air Diagnosis: Murder, as well as KSL)
- Twin Falls had two ABC affiliates, as KKVI was an ABC affiliate based in Twin Falls and KIVI had a translator in Twin Falls (KIVI's translator is now the official ABC affiliate for Twin Falls)
- KKVI aired FOX program M.A.N.T.I.S in parallel with FOX affiliates in ET and CT (6pm MT) and an hour before other FOX affiliates in MT
- KIDK also aired Cheers at 10:35 and bumped Letterman to 11:05
- KIVI airing Loving at 2pm, while KKVI pre-empted it

I wonder if Twin Falls' cable provider had Foxnet or KTRV for the full lineup?

Wow no Price is Right on KPIX at this time?

That KCRA afternoon schedule is nuts lol they might as well have just aired Another World lol.

KPIX was still Westinghouse-owned at the time, but it (and also KOVR) would be CBS O&O's a couple of years later. However, KCRA was the only NBC affiliate listed to carry Jane Whitney.

Was it somewhat common in the Pacific Time Zone to air Another World prior to Days?

KOVR became a CBS affiliate in 1995. However, it did not become a CBS O&O until late 2004.

I'm guessing K55DP was an affiliate of an LPTV network like Network One or Channel America.

I was surprised the Reno Gazette-Journal even included its listings in the TV Week as it had zero cable carriage

Do you also have the tv schedules for the weekend of 1/29 and 30/1994?
